

PREACHING CURRICULUM

SERMON TITLE: King of the Hill

SCRIPTURE: Psalm 2

'...Jesus Christ is set on His hill, we can move forward in confidence, assurance, and passion to speak of the hope we have in the truth...'

1

REVIEW THE SERMON

What will you do in the face of our nation's spiraling toward the exclusion of God?

How does the anti-god culture attack God's representatives because they can't attack God?

Vs. 1-3 Who is against God? What is the story behind Psalm 2 and David's life that helps to inform us of his meaning and purpose?

2

ASSESS YOUR LIFE

Vs. 6 Where then does our confidence come from?

Vs. 7 What is the true idea behind 'You are my son' as covenant?

What did the apostles consider (Acts 4) when set upon on all sides by enemies? How did Psalm 2 give them assurance?

How do you protect yourself from ever encroaching on the hill or trying to approach it on your own terms?

3

APPLY THE TRUTH

Vs. 1-3 Why do they rage? Why is popular culture today restless, raging and never satisfied? Even upon getting something there is always something else to rage about.

Vs. 3 What are the 'bonds and fetters'? Why do we see culture redefine righteousness as bondage?

Vs. 6 Why are they afraid of the King? What are some of the ways this is expressed in our culture?

4

COMMIT THIS WEEK

Will the King's anger be a refuge for you as one of His own as you 'kiss the Son'?
