REVIEW THE SERMON

"The dynamics of a healthy family life should be expressed in the life of a healthy Church".

What is social justice, and how does it play out in the various aspects of Canadian life and culture? Where is the first place the Christian should go to understand justice, social order, and respect for others? Why would Paul make such a big deal out of this? _____

Why is this true today, "If anyone is not willing to work, let him not eat (2 Thess. 3:10)? Why could Paul make this claim? Who was he protecting? _____

2

ASSESS YOUR LIFE

Do you have healthy and biblical relationships with people of different age groups and different sexes? How have these relationships blessed you? (If you are resistant to these types of relationships, ask yourself why that is and if that is truly a biblical perspective). _____

How are you working hard, if able, to provide for your family, using your time, talents, and treasure to bring about God's command to take dominion? What does this look like in your life? _____

3

APPLY THE TRUTH

How can you more faithfully and obediently pursue Godly relationships with people of all demographics in the church? What are some practical action steps you need to take today to make this a reality? _____

Are there people in your immediate and extended family who are truly vulnerable and require your help and care? How can you help and serve them moving forward? _____

4

COMMIT THIS WEEK

Will you commit to being held accountable for helping and supporting those truly in need around you? _____

The Bible instructs us to:

- ◆ Treat others according to their age and sex.
- ◆ Treat others according to their marital status.
- ◆ Treat others according to their age.
