THE HEALING HANDS OF JESUS MATT 9:18-34

'...the healing hands of Jesus assure us of ultimate redemption...He did it, He is doing it, and He will do it ...'

1 REVIEW THE SERMON

What do the different categories of healings and miracles performed by Jesus in this passage say about Jesus' ongoing work in our lives as well as our future hope? _____

---

---

---

---

Why is it significant that the possessed man was made mute by the demons in this passage? What might be the reason the demons prevented him from speaking? _____

---

---

---

---

2 ASSESS YOUR LIFE

In what ways have you struggled to believe in faith that Jesus did, is doing, and will continue to do what He said He would in your life personally? _____

---

---

---

---

Do you struggle to share your faith and the Gospel with others to proclaim what Christ has done in your life? Why or why not? _____

---

---

---

---

---

---

3 APPLY THE TRUTH

How do these four episodes of healing prescriptively describe for us that we must first come in worship, before we can lay our requests before God? What are some really practical things you can do in your walk with the Lord to maintain this perspective? _____

---

---

---

---

---

Who needs to hear about the saving work of the Lord in your life? Will you open your mouth and speak to this person about what Christ has done? _____

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

The healing hands of Jesus assure us of ultimate redemption!

- Jesus makes dead people live and unclean people clean. (Vs 18-26)
- Jesus restores our sight and enables us to walk by faith. (Vs.27-31)
- Jesus conquers our Enemy and divides believers from unbelievers. (Vs.32-34)

4 COMMIT THIS WEEK

What blinders need to be removed this week so that you can respond to Christ in faith? Commit your shortcomings to the Lord and open your mouth. _____
