

PREACHING CURRICULUM

Marks of True Kingdom Citizens Matt 21:28-22:14

“Repentant sinners are welcomed citizens, but hypocrites are rejected.”

1 REVIEW THE SERMON

What are the 3 marks of a true Kingdom citizen? Why are all 3 marks vital in the life of a believer? _____

What do the items and people in the Parable of the Tenants represent? What is the point of Jesus telling this parable?

2 ASSESS YOUR LIFE

Is your life marked by active belief – repentance and obedience – in your profession of faith in Christ? _____

Are you bearing fruit and producing as a tenant in God’s vineyard? Do you see God’s blessing to you as you produce the fruit of good works? _____

3 APPLY THE TRUTH

Can you identify an area in your life where it was difficult to give to the Lord? What had to change for true transformation to take place? Or, asked another way, what actions need to happen in your life – at home, work, school, church, etc. – so that they match your words about following and obeying Jesus? _____

To whom must you proclaim an invitation to God's great wedding feast? What/when will you share with them? _____

4 COMMIT THIS WEEK

How will you actively walk in obedience to the call placed on you this week? How can you be a faithful tenant in God's vineyard moving forward? _____
