

PREACHING CURRICULUM

The Olivet Discourse-Pt.2 Matthew 24:36-51

"Anticipating His return, we await His person and work for His purposes."

1 REVIEW THE SERMON

What was Jesus teaching His disciples about obedience and faithfulness in this passage? What three things should they be concerned with? How were they to wait on Him? _____

Why doesn't the Son know the hour of His coming? How are we to reconcile that apparent contradiction? _____

2 ASSESS YOUR LIFE

Do you grow irritated when waiting for other people for events and celebrations? How long do you normally give people before you get frustrated? _____

Similarly, do you have a difficult time "waiting for God," to act in your life? Why or why not? What are some examples of those circumstances? _____

Are you faithfully engaged and serving in ministry at our church? If not, why are you delaying? What are the barriers keeping you from engaging in faithful service, and what are the next steps you need to commit to? _____

3 APPLY THE TRUTH

If you are presently “waiting for God”, how can you do so patiently, faithfully, and obediently? How can you be a faithful steward now? _____

How are you serving through the trials of life? How does this great hope we have in Christ’s return motivate you to faithfully serve Him even when things get challenging? Are you “awake” and “ready”? _____

Who do you need to warn about the coming judgement of the wicked? _____

4 COMMIT THIS WEEK

How will you serve the Lord dutifully, and not delay, this week? _____
