PREACHING CURRICULUM

Our Sin & His Death
Matthew 26:30-56

"Identifying the disease of sin is the first step to enjoying the reconciliation and healing that we can receive through Jesus."

1 REVIEW THE SERMON

Why must people spend time looking at the ugliness of their own sin? What should it accomplish?_____

What is the grand lie in all false religions? Why is it so appealing for so many people? _____

2 ASSESS YOUR LIFE

What do you do when you are down and feel bad about yourself (be honest)? _____

How have you "fallen away" in your Christian life? Is there a specific moment in mind? Consider the commitments you've made and failed to keep. Note: "falling away" here is not to be taken as a denial of the faith, but rather as shortcomings, hypocrisy, passivity, etc._____

In light of the previous question, how have you experienced the redemptive work of Christ in moments when you have "fallen away"? How has His death brought purpose and hope to your life specifically? _____

3 APPLY THE TRUTH

Not that we earn our salvation; however, it will produce a good work. So, how can you better adopt or practice the spiritual disciplines to strengthen you to be more faithful and more obedient, and not spiritually lazy? _____
